

Verónica Perera has a Licenciatura in Sociology from Universidad del Salvador in Buenos Aires (1993) and a MA in Economic Sociology from Instituto de Altos Estudios, Universidad Nacional de San Martín (1999). In 1999 she moved to New York City where she lived until 2013. In 2007 Verónica received her Ph.D. in Sociology from the New School for Social Research. In 2008 she became Assistant Professor of Sociology at Purchase College, State University of New York. Since she returned to Argentina in 2013 she is Profesora Titular Interina at Departamento de Humanidades y Artes, Universidad Nacional de Avellaneda. Her field of expertise is cultural activism, political theater,

Latin American social movements, and collective memory of the last dictatorship (1976-1983). Her publications in academic journals and book chapters deal with The World Social Forum, Human Rights struggles in Colombia and Argentina, Latin American Feminisms, and political theater and memories of political violence.